

1991 Coupe ❖ $5,000

I have attached a photo of a Corvette that I want to sell. It's a 1991 Coupe, 75K original miles, ran great, but not running now. I was told it would need a fuel pump. I know it does not need much. I am financially strapped at this time. I thought about putting it on the road, but would like to sell it for 5K as is. This would make a great project car for someone.

Price: $5,000 as is
