The Driver's Seat

NMCA President, Phil Ellison

A September to Remember . . .

While I don't own a crystal ball, I can predict that the Southwest Invitational for 2004 is going to be one of the best ever. 7 NCCC events, skill levels spread from total novice to pro with fun for every entrant and two fabulous dinners. Oh yeah, all for just $50 (unless you waited too long and had to pay $60). Even at $60, you're making out like a bandit. Several out-of-town entrants are waiting to snag our hardware and take it home. Your mission is to participate, and win, lose or draw . . . show them a good time and have a ball yourself in the process!

The Haydu's are chairing the first event Saturday morning . . . the funkhana. Steve & Jean are absolute masters at making the simplest of tasks frustrating. While I don't know all that they have up their devious little sleeve, I think I can safely mention two words that will bring nightmarish headaches to those who have participated in the past....Oreo's & locks! Enough said.

The crystal ball would also tell me that you'll enjoy a long, scenic, historic poker run which will put the navigator (required) through a real test. No sitting back and enjoying the ride this time around! And Saturday evening will be somewhat of a crap shoot. You'll see what I mean once you're there.

And Sunday we won't be spinning our wheels either (ok, maybe a little at the start line). Autocross action like you can only dream about. And this year we have exploding cones. Bright purple paint is loaded, and when the cone is hit....bingo, you are marked. This really takes the burden off the corner workers. Come in with a purple spray, lose two seconds. Easy. We've also arranged for a wash bay equipped with turpentine and rags adjacent to the course for those of you who actually nail a cone.

On a serious note, I hope each and every one of you can and will attend this event. This is the one time each year that we can truly come together as a club and experience a weekend of fun, fun competitive spirit, good food and a few laughs, and more importantly, represent the club to the public and potential members. From the first tee during the golf tourney on Friday morning until the final trophy is awarded Sunday afternoon, plan to enjoy your club, fellow members and the challenges presented. For the members who travel to other club events, this will be a good way to compare our efforts against others. For the vast majority of NMCA members, this is your sole opportunity to compete with others in a fun, controlled environment.

Personally, Janet & I have a funkhana title to defend, and we're laying out the challenge to take our crown away! For newer members, let me just say that the competition is really for second place, as first place is pretty much a given! Think differently? I guess we'll find out at 9 am on Saturday the 25th! Just line up behind the undefeated yellow '69 427! Ok, enough small talk. By the way, I like to run the funkhana with my tire pressure at 10! I strongly suggest you do the same.

Until the invitational, may we all have a marvelous, memorable experience! Adios amigos!

NMCA VP, Wallace Bow

Editors Note:

Wallace regrets that he was unable to supply a message this month. Employment obligations have got him stretched thin at the moment. Wallace did want to pass along a message stating that the Southwest Invitational continues to shape up to be the biggest and best ever. While he is missing some registrations, Wallace is certain that a vast majority of NMCA will be involved. This is good, because there are many out-of-town entrants this year, and defending our trophies is paramount!

Final, last minute details and information will be presented at the General meeting on Friday September 17th. Please attend this very important meeting.

On behalf of all of NMCA, welcome home.

We're proud of your service and happy for a safe return & reunion.

Don't forget . . . NMCA Private Drag Party, Saturday September 18th.

Arrive at 2:30, and floor at 3 pm!

Note: If you have something to ask Phil, you'd better ask before his helmet gets strapped on, otherwise you'll need to wait until after 5 pm! (unless he runs out of gas before then!)

Council Meeting Minutes

September 7, 2004

- The regular Council meeting date was postponed until Wednesday September 8th by VP Wallace Bow due to schedule conflicts. After contacting all Officers, Wallace felt the vast majority would be able to attend. Unfortunately, only 3 Officers were actually present on Wednesday September 8th. Without a quorum present, Wallace dismissed the attending Officers and no Council meeting was conducted.

What Happened

August 21st – NMCA Invades The Airwaves

Early Saturday morning (7:45 am) Phil Ellison, Wallace Bow & Shane LeMon gathered at the new KKNS-AM radio station studio in Albuquerque and were guests on the Arrow Automotive talk show from 8 until 9. While Phil watched, Wallace and Shane brought forth an amazing volume of trivia and facts about the new C-6 Corvette. Virtually every aspect of the new model was discussed and explained. Comparisons were frequent between the C-5 and C-6. Several callers asked great questions as well. Overall a very informative hour. Immediately following the show, Wallace & Phil hung around and were guests on Stuart Gorelick's radio program. The program revolves around computer issues, and the reason for having NMCA on the show was to discuss how easy and simple an effective and classy web site can be developed. Using www.nmcorvette.org as a model, we discussed how this web site had many applications, and was simple enough to maintain and refresh, that almost anyone with minimal computer skills could master a similar site.

Shane & Wallace, 7-8 am on KKNS-AM

Wallace & Phil with Stu, 9-9:30 on KKNS-AM

August 22nd – Smile For The Birdie!

26+ Corvettes gathered at the Rio Rancho SportsPlex at 9:30 Sunday morning for the annual NMCA photo shoot. The day was perfect and we had the entire grass field to ourselves for 3 hours. To gain elevation, NMCA had coordinated with and received approval from the Rio Rancho Fire & rescue folks to supply a ladder truck for our use. As it turned out, we never actually required the ladder to be extended, but Wallace did climb atop the truck to get a little better angle on the group. With enough time to experiment slightly, two different (but similar) layouts were photographed, with and without members. We also brought the fire engine and the two Fire & Rescue personnel (Scott Kelley & Richard Doty) into the shot. We were requested to be off the field by noon, and the last Corvette cleared the field at 11:57. (Why the rush we don't know, as nobody was waiting on us!) Multiple shots from this day are available on the web site for review. Many of the members regrouped at Dion's afterwards for some well deserved pizza. Thanks again to Scott & Richard for their fine assistance.

August 29th – Autocross Action

8 Corvettes plus Wallace in his Caddy plus a homemade open-wheeled racer from UNM gathered at 9 am Sunday morning to get in a little more autocross seat-time prior to SWI. Times were good and navigating the course wasn't much on an issue. Wallace in his Caddy managed to smoke most of the Corvettes, but only by a couple of seconds. A few brand new cones were abruptly introduced to the front bumper of a couple Corvettes, but that's life in the fast lane. Despite some timing issues, the entire gang had a ton of fun. Ask Bob DuBois about his membership in the slider club! For the benefit of all, Bob puts on a mean show!

Event Planner

Sept 18 NMCA Private Drag Party & Vette-Viper Challenge

Oct 15 Important NMCA General Meeting
At this General meeting members will cast ballots for NMCA Governor position plus submit nominations for all remaining elected Officer positions. Shape the future of NMCA by stepping forward and throwing your name in the hat, or by nominating an outstanding member who you feel would represent the club well and continue to make NMCA the best Corvette club in the southwest! Don't just sit and watch . . . become part of the leadership team.

Nov 19 Important NMCA General Meeting
At this General meeting members will vote for their 2005 NMCA Officers, plus "Person Of The Year". Only members in good standing, who are paid for 2005 may cast ballots.

The above is a list of NMCA and related events scheduled. Be sure to check the calendar at www.nmcorvette.org for an expanded list of activities involving other car clubs within the area. Contact information for each is supplied with the event description, if known. As with any event, prior to attending you should take steps to verify the event details, times & locations are still accurate.

Flyers and reservation forms for NMCA events can be viewed and printed from the "downloads" section of www.nmcorvette.org. Applicable forms will be available at NMCA general meetings as well.

New Additions To The Family

We again have no new additions to NMCA during the past 30 days. In the meantime, how about a few snapshots from the August 22nd NMCA Club Photo shoot in Rio Rancho. 28 Corvettes participated. The weather & timing couldn't have been any better. Thank you to Wallace Bow for taking these great photos, plus thank you to the Rio Rancho Fire & rescue folks who supplied a huge truck, which we were able to get a great angle from atop the truck. For more photos of this and each event, please visit www.nmcorvette.org.

There are 21 Links and 6 Categories in our database

During the past year we have been through pretty much every page of the web site, describing how it works, how it may benefit you and assist with some pointers for more efficient web site navigation. Here's one that we may not have discussed (newer members should download back editions of Tach Times to see past articles). From the home page you can click on 'Web Links', which will bring you to this page. From here you have several categories to select from. Inside each category (accessed by clicking on the underlined title) you will have a selection of web sites pertaining to that topic. Click on the web site link, and you'll be taken to that web site. This list is by no means complete. As you stumble around on the world wide web, and come across neat Corvette sites which may be of interest to others as well, please forward the site and URL to info@nmcorvette.org. This area of the web site could expand dramatically, but not without your direct input.

Speaking of input . . . now is the time to come forward and volunteer your web administrator skills. Along with stepping down as President, I will also be relinquishing all newsletter editor duties plus web site administration effective December 11th at our Awards Banquet. I have virtually no computer skills, yet have been able to maintain this site fairly well. You can do the same. Make your talents known so that the incoming President can get you plugged in so that the web presentation doesn't skip a beat. I'm sure that 30%+ of the members could accomplish this task . . . so step forward and make a difference!

Question: What's the fastest way to close open files and folders? There's got to be a quicker and easier way to close them other than one at a time.

Answer: Let me see if I can translate this question into real-world speak: "I was goofing off at work, playing a game on my computer, when the boss walked in and caught me because I couldn't close the program fast enough." Am I close?

All kidding aside, there is an easy way for Windows users to close multiple files and folders. Hold down the Ctrl (Control) key and click each open folder's icon on the Taskbar, at the bottom of the screen. The buttons will appear to be depressed (probably not unlike yourself after the boss caught you), but nothing will happen. Then right-click any one of the depressed buttons and select Close from the menu that appears. All files and folders will snap closed in one swell foop.

Fall Foliage Tour Details

NMCA asked for it, and Ron Scott has been gracious enough to plan a great trip for the club. Time is working against us, so please review this, and plan to attend the September 17th General meeting to firm this trip up.

Route: Back roads through northern New Mexico into the Durango area. Destination is Durango, CO.

When: Depart Saturday October 2nd and return on the 3rd.

Accommodations: Iron Horse Inn, Durango. $69/night provided the club books at least 5 rooms.

$89/night if we don't hit the 5 room limit. Members are responsible for making their own reservations.

Call 1-800-748-2990 to book a room. Ask for the NM Corvette Association rate.

On September 17th we'll get a head count plus make meeting location decision. Due to the balloon fiesta being in progress, we will need to meet somewhere away from the traffic generated by that event.

Bring a camera and plan for a day long scenic trip, hopefully enjoying some color along the way!

Don't be the only one not to attend this year's Southwest Invitational. If you haven't registered, you will be forced to pay a slightly higher price, however we can still get you in. The one-price registration this year allows extreme flexibility. Get to the event and feel like you'd like to participate instead of just watch....not a problem. Just get signed up for the event PRIOR to the posted driver's meeting start time. Then sit back, enjoy and compete with your fellow members. Remember, this is a fun event and weekend. If you feel the need to protest a rule or situation, then please follow the prescribed protest procedures. Volcanoes and hot-heads will be asked to leave the event area.

A huge thank you again to Wallace Bow, who has spent countless hours organizing, detailing and planning this year's Southwest Invitational. He has received numerous kudos already on the excellent quality of the registration flyer he sent out. This stands to be one class act that you simply won't want to miss. Be there!
