DoNuts Derelicts

In southern California, every Saturday morning, car people gather early to eat donuts, drink coffee, and socialize. Several people in Albuquerque are trying to start the same event. Meet at the parking lot of Defined Fitness, next to Krispy Kreme, 3301 Juan Tabo NE (between Candelaria and Comanche) on the west side, between 7:00am and 9:00am any Saturday. Drive an interesting car. There's plenty of room to park.

Apparently this has turned out to be a good event so far, according to some attendees. More cars are requested.
