❖ General Meeting Minutes ❖

February 17, 2012

Meeting called to order at 6:07pm by President David Gwilt

Visitors: None

Casa Presentation: Larry English played a video on the new 427 Corvette convertible coming out in the summer of 2012.

Treasurer's Report: No report due to Treasurer's absence

Minutes to last meeting: No report due to Secretary's absence

Dinner after meeting: A show of hand had 30 people planning to attend after meeting

Activities Report:

1. Wallace reported that the Club Photo shoot will be this Sunday. We leave Shane's office at 2pm and drive to Santa Anna Star Center. This was originally scheduled for Saturday but the state wrestling tournament is taking place Saturday. We plan on going to Sonics' in Bernalillo after the shoot.
2. Shane reported that March 18th will be a special Joy Junction run. The time will be announced at a later date. This run is to take diapers to the center.
3. Shane stated that again this year we will have at least one event scheduled other than the regular meeting. Stay tuned as they developed and are announced at upcoming meetings.
4. Shane asked for lady volunteers to help with the Christmas Party next December. He has found a location next to Hotel Albuquerque that may fit our needs.
5. Shane reported that if the International car Show can get the city to close off the street then we will be able to display of Corvettes in the street. If this doesn't happen we will not participate.
6. James Romero reported that on September 3rd the Desert Corvette Club will be holding a huge Corvette (only) Car Show in Laughlin, Nevada. This is a change in location from Tombstone, Arizona where it has been held in the past. James reports that this show is several days and has many activities besides just a car show.

Corvette Museum Report: Bob Kitts reported that the museum is hosting an ALMS tour in California in June. The museum is also holding a membership drive and family membership can be purchased for the same price as a single membership. The museum is also looking for special patriotic painted cars to display at the museum. The kicker is your car will be there for 5 months on display.

Other Items Discussed or Reported:

1. Wallace Bow stated a friend of his has a 1964 Coupe, 327, 4-speed for sale. If anyone is interested please see Wallace for more information.
2. The awards for the Super Nationals were announced. The club received 2nd place for the club presentation. David Gwilt received 2 awards, Rick Alexander 2 awards, Mike Rothman 2 awards, James Romero, Mike Montoya, and Dominick Lapore each received one.
3. David Gwilt spoke about updating the membership booklet. Wallace suggested that we could take some individual photos at the photo shoot for the booklet. James Griego stated that we would assist in publishing the booklet.
4. Shane talked about saving money in how you insure your Corvette. He said by insuring your Corvette separately he saved considerable dollars. If you have children still on your insurance policy it is well worth looking into.
5. Shane and Wallace spoke about racing opportunities on Friday's at the track. The cost is minimal and it is a great experience in checking out your car or riding with someone that has experience.
6. A discussion was held on the New Mexico CC membership cards. James Griego will look into. The NCCC mix up of membership cards is still be sorted through.
7. Shane talked about the Formula One racing in Austin, Texas the weekend before Thanksgiving. He asked who may be interested in going down. Shane will report back to the club as more details become available.
8. David Gwilt read all of the February birthdays for club members.

Meeting was adjourned at 6:45pm
