

MINUTES OF MEETING

October 22, 2014

The NMCCC convened their October meeting at 7:45. Once inside we took our seats all warm and cozy.

Present at the meeting were: Bill Lemen-LCOC; Ron & Su Rymarz, Joyce Clements-OCCA; Pat & Chuck Logan-Cougar Club; Raymond Cotinola, Mike Maguire, Dennis Seibert-Rickshaws; David Merewether-Tin Lizzies; Lauri Rector-NM4-Wheelers; Jamie Saavedra, Mark Terkeltaub, Chris Padilla-LOE GTO's; James Clements-Early Ford V8's; Perry Key-NM Artists; Robert Gold-Corvair Club; John Doran-Rio Grande Mustangs.

After President Dennis insured that everyone got their newsletter, he asked for guests and/or new members. Seeing none, he made quick dispatch of several agenda issues.

Ron gave the money report, and we're doing fine.

JD gave us an update on the registration of the logo and we are making progress.

Robert Gold gave a brief update on the website, and it is clicking like a Swiss watch. I guess that's still a good thing. Will Clements is our resident watch expert, so he can correct me if that phrase is no longer germane.

Joyce Clements was introduced to give us a Swap Meet closing report. Although the actual figures were not set in stone it was guesstimated that we made roughly $4,000 for the weekend. A little bird whispered in my ear, and I think the final figure will be around $4,700. Nice work to Joyce and her crew. Hooray, now we can buy a speed boat! We did vote to increase the amount sent to Los Lunas to $1,500.

Jamie gave us an update on the "Facebook" activities and we apparently have some 700 followers. That's more than Lindsay Lohan, and exactly twice the amount of the nightly MSNBC viewing audience.....

We also discussed our dates for 2015 activities. The dates for the car show in May and the fall swap meet are set. By the time you get this, the picnic and Collector Car Appreciation day should be set. Follow your newsletter none the less for updates on these and 2015 car show activities.

This was our last meeting of 2014. Now on the fourth Wednesday of November I'll be able to settle in and enjoy the Honey Boo Boo marathon. Take care and have a safe and happy Thanksgiving, and Christmas. See you in January.

Your Secretary.

Bill Lemen
