Hello fellow NMCCC members. First off a big thank you to Jamie Saavedra for pinch hitting for your secretary till he was able to get to the meeting. As we were there for a car show stuffing and pizza party the business side of the meeting was some what short shrift. Lauri opened the meeting with agenda items including a treasurer's report and a Facebook report from Jamie herself. We have 1,283 likes. Robert Gold is working on links to the page to get and receive additional information on car events through our Facebook page. Lauri had no updates on the Collector Car appreciation day events if we will have any at all. Sounds like it could be an ice cream run for the day. Also looking for a club for the all clubs picnic. Joyce gave a brief commentary on the car show. As you all know by now it is Route 66 themed. She is looking for cars from 1937 to 1976, the last active year of the route. We broke the meeting up for car show stuffing and Pizza party. Thanks again to Joyce for organizing and Bob for giving us a place to stuff, both envelopes and our bellies. See you at the Spring Thaw, and the May car show. Check you newsletters and website for all the latest dope on car happenings in the city of Duke. Your sec. Bill (with help from Jamie)

We have a new member club, the Drifters. Welcome. And welcome back to new Reps from the Camaro Club and the Challengers.

NOTE: The City of Albuquerque has secured funding for a proposed bus to run down the center of Central Ave. The proposal has received quite a bit of backlash due to the fact that it will negatively impact businesses within the area. If you are against this construction, please contact your city council members. You can find their contact information on www.cabq.gov.

NOTE: The EPA Proposal to ban race cars and aftermarket race car parts has been met with great resistance by car enthusiasts. If you disagree with the ban, you can send a letter to your congressperson by visiting <https://www.voterveice.net/mobile/SEMA/Campaigns/45394/Respond>
