 GOOD NEWS *****

The Model T Speedster that was stolen from the Elegante Hotel parking lot has been recovered, thanks to our great car community. The tow truck and enclosed trailer with the car inside were taken. The truck was recovered quickly while being used in a burglary in Meadowlake, but the possessors claimed no knowledge of the car and trailer. Monday, July 18, Bruce Hartman spotted the car in an arroyo and called police. Model T Club member, Larry Azevedo was called by police, and his report is, "The car was abandoned in an arroyo east of the Interstate just south of Rio Bravo and I-25. The officer took my identification and gave me the keys which were left with the car. It was in deep sand and hard to get my trailer lined up so I tried to start it. It started up just fine, oil pressure OK. I should have just drove it to a good spot to line the trailer but decided to turn it around and drive on the trailer. As luck would have it it died crossways in the sand and the battery did not have enough juice to turn it over. Since it has no crank I had to tow it a bit to line up with the trailer. Anyway, got it on the trailer and back to my house by 10 AM. There is no visible damage to the car. Don and Nancy Housman [CA owners] are really happy." Thanks to car enthusiasts, the car will return to its owners. So far I've received about 30 e-mails cheering the good news and congratulating the car community. Car people are great.

Local artist, Perry Key, is the featured artist in the August issue of "The Latest Scoop," the auto events magazine out of Colorado. Perry has drawn many of our cars, and is always on hand to help supervise the art display at our Museum car show. Pick up a copy of the magazine if you get a chance. Congratulations, Perry.

Local car enthusiast, Gary Singer had his 1981 American LaFrance Century Series "911 Rolling Memorial" selected by Hagerty Insurance as Classic of the Year. You may remember it from our 2015 Museum Show, where it received the Show Chair's Choice award. Congratulations Gary.

This all goes to show that we have some great people and some great cars in our midst.

MINUTES OF NMCCC MEETING OF JUNE 22, 2016

A group met at 6:00pm to stuff swap meet applications into envelopes and get them ready to mail. We then celebrated with pizza and salad for the workers.

Present at the meeting were: Gabe Trujillo, Bill Griffith-Drifters Car Club; Lyle Ferrell, Ann Merewether-Jaguar Club; Dave Merewether-Tin Lizzies; Christine White, Wayne Mikosz, Jim White, Ron Rymarz, Su Rymarz, Joyce Clements, Will Clements, Dan Stone-Old Car Club; James McCoy, Teri McCoy-OCCA & VMCCA; Pat Logan, Chuck Logan-Cougar Club; Robert Gold, John Wiker-Corvair Club; Lauri Rector-NM 4-Wheelers; Michelle Garcia-GTO Club; Perry Key-NM Auto Artists; John Doran-RG Mustangs; Raymond Cotinola-Rickshaws; Kristen Lynch-Camaro Club; Jane Webster-SW MotorSports; Jamie Saavedra-V8 Vixens; Mark Terkeltaub-Pontiac Club; Bob Agnew-Classic Car Club; Jim Clements-Tumbleweed V8s.

The June meeting for the NM Car Council got under way at exactly 7:30. First off, thanks go out to sub-scribe Will Clements who took notes until my arrival. Thanks Will. The meeting was called to order at 7:30 on the dot. Seeing as we had no Joe, we had no treasurer's report. But we got money... And we got more than you know. I have it from a little bird named Joyce that we are right at 3g's in swap meet money. But I digress.

Robert Gold gave us a website update and that's moving along swimmingly. It was also mentioned that to date we have had 1380 likes on our Facebook page.

This meeting also saw an election of a new President, Vice-President and a Board Member. Congrats to Jamie, Robert and Mike on their wins.

We briefly discussed Collector Car Appreciation Day on July 9th. Apparently it was a good gathering.

Also on the order of new business, Joyce is looking for swap meet volunteers. Come one come all. The swap meet is already starting to fill up. Need to get your money in by AUGUST 8TH to insure you get the same spot as last year. Receipts will go out after the 1st of August.

Our new President introduced our guest speaker, Elizabeth Vencill, who is leading the charge against the "A.R.T. Project". She discussed what is being done to keep the city from spending money to install a bus/train line down the middle of Central from Tramway to the downtown business district. The City, despite many lawsuits, injunctions, and the clamor of many outraged businesses, has begun working on the new line. Apparently the mantra is, "We're the next Cleveland". Hmm, from what I can see of the RNC convention coverage, not a laudable goal. Anyway, there you have it. Many in the car hobby have suggested a concerted anti-A.R.T. effort on behalf of the Car Council. With our non-profit status we can not put our name to a political endeavor. However, please feel free to contact your rep as you see fit. Please feel free to check out change.org for petitions and other means to let your voice be heard. I wonder, with their yearning to become the next Cleveland, can a $4 billion budget for a lake be far behind?

Anyway, we will see you at the next meeting and enjoy the summer car events. Your sec, Bill Lemen/Will Clements
