THANK YOU FOR HELPING!

The NMCC meeting was a bit different this last month. We met earlier than usual to stuff the annual car show envelopes. There were roughly 35 or so at the party and we started on time, had our pizza and salad and were done by 8:25.

Really the only bits of new business were just updates on the car show which is set with its 1967 theme, and some further discussions on the swap meet. We did also talk briefly about the all clubs picnic and where we were in the planning process.

We have gotten over 1,000 Facebook likes, and according to Robert, the website is humming along.

Guess what? No pizza in April, BUT, We will have pizza at the May meeting too! Hooray!!! Actually you will have to sing for your supper in a way. We will be stuffing goody bags at that get together. We are meeting the 17th of May at 6:00 to stuff bags for the car show. That's usually a fun meeting and you get your exercise doing laps around the table.

See you next time out and please check the website or newsletter for upcoming events. Your Sec-Bill Lemen

Note: An addendum to the Ralph Workman estate is that the cars are supposed to be sold. The property, described as a "Car Guy" place with a large garage, a detached garage and workshop, located in the far NE heights of Albuquerque. Contact realtor, Max Sklower (cell 505 999- 9822), for appointment to see the property.
