GOOD NEWS

For those who have not heard, the trailer belonging to the Model T that was stolen last summer has been recovered. It was found at a chop shop raided by APD. That means that the car community was instrumental in recovering the car, truck and trailer that was stolen. Thank you all, and thank you to the police for their part in recognizing and helping in the recovery of these items. It feels good to have a happy ending to this unfortunate event.

AN INVITATION

Deneen Lowe, Community Liaison for Peter Piper Pizza in Albuquerque & Rio Rancho wants to start weekly car shows at their 3 locations and to have you show off your cars. Pick a day (Monday- Thursday) and time (same day& time every week). Events will be year-round. Call or text Deneen Lowe at (602)-326-8958 or e-mail: dlowe@peterpiperpizza.com. Do not contact restaurants directly; they want one person to coordinate. They want to make this a fundraiser for clubs. Your club will receive 15% of all money brought in each night; if you bring in $2000 or more you receive 20%. A flyer will be provided to post on a website, facebook or print if to get the word out. When people stop by to see your cars tell them to "go inside and order food but don't forget to mention our car club to support us". They already have the 1st Thursday of every month 5p-8p from April through August booked with Warrior Machines Car Club. So if anyone else wants that day they can book earlier in the day, anytime from 11am -4:30p. You need to reserve through Deneen at least 2 weeks ahead. If you want from now through May you need to call her ASAP due to dates filling up. Locations are 3109 San Mateo NE, 9260 Golf Course Rd NW, and 4101 Central NW Suite M-2.
