CAR COUNCIL MEETING FOR MAY 25, 2022

Present at the meeting were: Robert Gold-Wheels of Gold Corvairs; Joe Ballengee-ABQ Model Car Club; Jim, Joyce, Will Clements-Tumbleweed Ford V8 Club, Old Car Club; Su Rymarz-Old Car Club, Rt. 66 Cars & History; Greg Nelson-Corvairs of New Mexico; Steve Kranz-Tin Lizzies Model T Club; Mark Sanchez-Poco Quatros Model A Club; Vikki Ridgley-Rte 66 VW Club; Ed Marihugh-Rickshaws; Mike Peckumn-Christian Rodders.

Our Council meeting for May was held at the Manzano Mesa Multigenerational Center. Thank you, JD, for finding us a meeting place.

Robert called the small group to order at 7:05. Joe started with the financial report, and it's looking good. The Museum Car Show was a big success, with 301 paid entries. There was an error at the dash plaque company's bank regarding our payment [Two groups' orders had identical 'last four digits' on their check routing numbers, but Joe got that resolved quickly. – Ed.]

The Military Museum building is too full to have meetings, thanks to a generous donation of stuff. If you'd like to help them organize and sort, Harry and Mike probably still need a hand. Council meetings will be at the Manzano Mesa Multigenerational Center for now. Thanks to JD for making the arrangements.

Su had made arrangements for a Collector Car Appreciation Day event, and discussed the plan. [Due to circumstances beyond our control, the Council's CCAD event has now been canceled. Enjoy the day on your own. – Ed.]

Ron and Su arranged to use Oak Flat for the All Clubs Picnic, but that venue is closed due to fire danger.

Su talked about the Swap Meet location; more information about that event later.

The Car Council trailer needs a new owner. The contents have been inventoried, and options are being explored. If you're interested, let us know.

Nominations were taken for next year's Officers and Directors. [We predict that Robert will remain President, Ron will continue as VP, Bill will still be Secretary, and Joe will continue as Treasurer. – Ed.] The Directors will be consulted, and we'll finalize our plans.

Robert reported that facebook is going away, at least from the Council's perspective.

The meeting adjourned at 8:17.

Joyce & Will

DONUT DERELICTS – ALBUQUERQUE

The Owners of Plaza North would like to see the Saturday AM car meet continue but with strict guidelines. The Plaza owners will be at entrances to the event to control access and have roped off a designated "Allowable Parking Area" and there will be APD on the scene to help enforce the rules. Only customers of the businesses will be allowed to park in the parking zone restricted for businesses. Those entering will be advised of the "rules governing the event" and be required to sign a document of agreement to the rules. Upon signing the agreement, the participant will need to secure 2 sponsors from those already approved to participate, and then obtain a placard for attendance to future events. If there are any violations to the rules, the placard will be revoked, and the violator asked to leave and not return. Some of the expectations are as follows: 1) NO DEMONSTRATIONS OF SPEED AT THE EVENT OR ON ADJACENT ROADWAYS. 2) All participants will conduct themselves in a proper manner. 3) No other unauthorized tactics will be allowed. 4) The plaza owners do not want this event publicized on Facebook.
